Cousin, and Friend*

Rosemary Herrera was born and raised in rural Wyoming as the fourth of fourteen siblings. She shared countless memories there braving the extreme winters beside her siblings. It's there that they learned to stick together and that nothing was more important than one's family. At the age of 25, while pregnant with her son Vince, she and her older sister Genevieve began studying the bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. Thus began her lifelong devotion to Jehovah and her ministry. She lived in various locations: Northern California, Idaho, and Washington State but spent the majority of the last 41 years in Las Vegas where she could be closest to her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Rosemary passed away at 87 years old on September 25, 2023. She passed away peacefully in the care of her children, surrounded by family. She was a faithful Jehovah's Witness for 62 years. She will be remembered for her kindness, her love for people, and for being a devoted single mother, an amazing grandmother, a wonderful great-grandmother, a loyal sister, and an ornery friend who spoke from the heart.
